

BirthNet Pop Quiz

What comes to mind when you think of childbirth?

Have you seen a mammal give birth? If so, what impressed you about it?

What is labor like?

Where is it safe to have a baby?

Who delivers the baby at a birth?

The role of the partner during a birth is:

Who is the most appropriate care provider for you or your partner when you or she is pregnant and giving birth?

What is a coach?

What is a doula?

What is a midwife? Where does she work?

Where were you born? Who was present at your birth?

Where was your mother born? Your father? Your grandmother/father? Your great-grandmother/father?

As a woman or a partner to a woman, who is the most appropriate care provider for well-woman care for the rest of your/her life? How do you find this person/these people?

Where did you get your information about all this? Where else could you get information?